

Read Me First

Dear EAS user,

We extend our heartfelt thanks to each of you for assisting us in testing a bug that some users have encountered within our software. While a majority of our users are unaffected, we understand the inconvenience this issue may cause to those experiencing it.

Despite our best efforts, we have been unable to recreate this bug within our development environment. Therefore, your input and experiences are invaluable to us in identifying and resolving the problem.

We kindly request that you provide detailed feedback and any observations you may have regarding the bug. Your contributions will significantly aid us in pinpointing the root cause and developing an effective solution.

Instructions for testing and reporting will be provided in a separate file. Please ensure that you read and follow them carefully to ensure we gather the most accurate and helpful information possible.

Thank you once again for your cooperation and support. Together, we can enhance the performance and reliability of our software.

Sincerely,

Tony Peterson
